Florida Journal of Educational Research (FJER)
Call for Papers

FERA 2023 Special Issue

We are pleased to announce the annual FERA conference Special Issue inspired by presentations of faculty, educators, and doctoral students at FERA 2023. Once again, the annual November meeting was filled with high quality presentations that stimulated rich conversations about (the future of) educational research in Florida and elsewhere. The aim of the annual FERA Special Issue is to share presentations beyond the conference audience. We are excited to provide this opportunity! Please consider submitting your presentation for publication in our online, open-access journal: https://journals.flvc.org/fjer/index

Deadline and Submission: April 19, 2024*, please indicate you are submitting for Vol. 61 No. 3 (2024): 2023 Florida Educational Research Association Conference Special Issue

Types of Submissions and Word Limits
We invite a variety of submissions of various length:
- brief research reports, teacher inquiries, and commentaries (2,000–6,000 words)
- full research articles (up to 8,000 words)

Word limits are inclusive of an abstract (150 words max), tables, figures, endnotes, and reference list.

Formatting
Please use APA approved font types, (e.g. 12-point Times Roman typeface), double-spaced, 1-inch margins, and APA 7th Edition style.

Review and Publication Timeline
All submissions will be peer-reviewed.

| Deadlines | |
|---|---|
| April 19th | Submissions due |
| April 19th to May 31st | Anticipated feedback to authors with requested revisions, if needed. |
| May 31st to July 15th | Revisions, multiple rounds if needed. |
| July 15th | Final submissions due |
| August 30th | Anticipated publication date |

Special Issue Editors:

María Vásquez-Colina,
Associate Professor
Florida Atlantic University
mvasque3@fau.edu

Corinne Huggins-Manley
Associate Professor
University of Florida
amanley@coe.ufl.edu

Michelle Vaughan
Associate Professor
Florida Atlantic University
mvaugha3@fau.edu